9 Other Activities and Programme

Develop Objectives and the multi-program for:

- ◆ Working group on training and education in crafts for heritage conservation: group has been created and the work programme is in development
- ◆ Worldwide network of universities: With support from Gustavo Araos, Jan Anderson, Philip Marshall, Ed Fitzgerald from the USA, Karel Bakker of South Africa, Julio Sampaio of Brazil, and Lyse Blanchet from Canada, the CIF started working on a worldwide network of universities. The aim is to give more focus on their role in training and to try to link this to the various other ISC. Following ICCROM suggestion, the working group will use the ICCROM current directory of institutions. Several academics and institutions around the world have already been contacted to verify their interest. Task force to be created.
- ◆ Review of the Guidelines for Education and Training in the Conservation of Monuments, Ensembles and Sites. With support from ICOMOS UK and the CIF representatives Dorian Crone and Lyse Blanchet, the CIF undertook the review of the Guidelines for Education and Training in the Conservation of Monuments, Ensembles and Sites, adopted at ICOMOS GA in Colombo, Sri Lanka, 1993, in the view of the many and sometimes fundamental changes in the field of heritage conservation. Final Draft is completed. Review comments will be circulated to the CIF, the ISC and NC during the summer and, will be presented for approval at the next CIF meetin.

- ◆ MOU with institutions and affinity organizations
- ◆ Cooperation and partnerships with Scientific Council
- ◆ Cooperation and partnerships with ISC and NC

10 Publications

The conclusions of the Pisa working conference in April 2008 are being completed and will be posted on the CIF website. The committee hosts a web site <http://cif.icomos.org>. Several publications related to training in heritage conservation have been posted.

11 Current topics

To assure continuity a working group on training and education in crafts for heritage conservation was created and is comprised of eight CIF members representing seven national committees: its mission and program of activities will be confirmed at the CIF meeting in the fall. The education to the public is the main topic for the 2009-11 period.
